

With artwork in a constant state of flux, Suzann Kundi uses drawing, sculpture, prints, film and photography to manipulate objects and the world around her to reflect the complex issues of developing sexuality, illness and disability. Taking her past experiences and future hopes, Kundi invites her audience to question their pre-conceived beliefs.

Kundi is from the East London but relocated to Barcelona in 2019. A native English speaker, she is learning Castellano and Catalan.
